Hello Case,

It was really good to meet you in person at ICAME 36. Your table of books was quite impressive with a nice offer of discounts to delegates.

I am writing to encourage to offer a similar display to highlight the John Benjamins line at NWAV 44 in Toronto, October 22-25.

We have done everything we can to make the NWAV 44 venue ideal for publishers. See for yourself in the presentation and information document attached!

I'd like to see Benjamins front and centre at the conference. You are one of the main publishers for our delegates whether in journals, books or book series. It would be great to publicize your important contributions to our field at this milestone conference in Toronto. It would be great to have you here!

Please contact me and let me know what arrangements would best suit John Benjamins! I can also be reached by phone at: 1 416 822 3428.

Sali
