Hello Gurdeep,

I understand that you and Matthew Nichols met my colleague Naomi Nagy at AAAL. I'm sure she told you about the NWAV 44 conference we are hosting in October.

I am writing to entice you to make Bloomsbury a presence there.

We have done everything we can to make the NWAV 44 venue ideal for publishers. Please see the attached powerpoint presentation and information document!

I'd like to see Bloomsbury at the conference. You are prominent publishers for many books in Sociolinguistics and related fields that our delegates would be very interested in hearing more about, in particular your publication, "Labov: A guide for the perplexed". Indeed, the author Matthew Gordon typically comes to NWAV, offering you an added incentive to have the book in full sight to sign copies and Bill Labov will be handy as a back drop. He will be there doing a plenary talk.

It would be great to publicize your important contributions to our field at this milestone conference in Toronto.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Sali
