Dear Sali,

Sorry for our late reply.

We would like a table for $350. (we will not need student help as Kees attends the meeting), we will send inserts for $75. And we would like a half-page ad in the program for $125.

If you are able, please send an invoice for this amount to my colleague in the US office:

John Benjamins Publishing
10 Meadowbrook Road
Brunswick ME 04011 USA

I understand we should send 400 copies of the insert. Correct?

We will make sure the shipment will reach you in time (by Oct 15th).

Please do send the technical specs/details for our half-page ad, as well an email address we should send the pdf to.
Thanks!!

Best, also on behalf of Kees,
Seline

Dear Sali,
My apologies for not answering sooner, but I have good news for you. I managed to change my itineraries for the the fall and will be able to attend NWAV in person with a book display. So you can note John Benjamins down for the publisher's display. We will also place an ad in the conference booklet. My colleague Seline Benjamins will organize this. I cc her to this message. I will make further arrangements soon for the trip to Toronto.
With best wishes,
Kees

Hello Case,

It was really good to meet you in person at ICAME 36. Your table of books was quite impressive with a nice offer of discounts to delegates.

I am writing to encourage to offer a similar display to highlight the John Benjamins line at NWAV 44 in Toronto, October 22-25.

We have done everything we can to make the NWAV 44 venue ideal for publishers. See for yourself in the presentation and information document attached!

I'd like to see Benjamins front and centre at the conference. You are one of the main publishers for our delegates whether in journals, books or book series. It would be great to publicize your important contributions to our field at this milestone conference in Toronto. It would be great to have you here!

Please contact me and let me know what arrangements would best suit John Benjamins!
I can also be reached by phone at: 1 416 822 3428.
