Excellent! Would you like us to send our flyers with the journal issues by 10/15? And can I email our ad to you when it is due or would you rather I send it to someone else?

Best,
Katie

Good morning Sali,

We would be happy to participate in this year's NWAV. We would like to share a joint table if possible ($175) and reserved a full page ad ($175), as well as a flyer for the registration packets ($75). We would be happy to donate all of our materials at the conclusion of the conference. For payment, it would be easiest for us to pay via credit card, but we can also be invoiced if need be (for an invoice, we would need you to provide us with your US Tax ID # and an updated W-9 from December 2014--thus why it is easier for both to do a credit card payment!).

Looking forward to working with you.

Best,
Katie

Hello Katie,

I got your email from Charles Carson. I am very interested in Duke University Press due to your books and of course your publication of American Speech. I wonder if you might consider coming to NWAV 44 in Toronto to make contact with our research driven and highly productive Sociolinguistics and Dialectology oriented delegates?

You will also be pleased to know that we have done everything we can to make the NWAV 44 venue ideal for publishers. Please see the attached powerpoint presentation and information document!

I'd very much like to see Duke at the conference. You are an ideal publishing house for our delegates. It would be great to publicize your important contributions to our field at this milestone conference in Toronto.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Sali

NWAV 44 is coming!
